Short Bio

Aeson Baldevia is a multi-disciplinary artist, based in Silay City, Philippines. He had accomplished multiple awards including being the first and only four-time awardee of USLS's Corps d' Elite, Best Campus Photoblogger, and Campus Photojournalist in Western Visayas. He currently works as a freelance photographer partnering with various local and international non-government organizations. He also frequently exhibits his work as a Fine Art Photographer.

Recently, he was awarded 3rd place by FIBA International Photo Contest and represented the country as a lone Filipino finalist in the Celeste Art Prize London in 2017. His works were showcased in Switzerland, Belgium, London, Japan, South Korea among others.

His works talk about human behavior, emotion, relationships, and the ability to survive in their environment.
