

DARYL FERIL

(b.1988, Bacolod City, Philippines)

Daryl Feril is a Filipino multidisciplinary artist based in Bacolod City, Philippines whose practice spans illustration, design and visual art. A graduate of La Consolacion College Bacolod with a degree in Bachelor of Fine Arts major in Advertising Arts. Working mainly in illustration & design, he often shifts into the visual arts to express a more personal and deeper approach on his work. He intersects and integrates ideas across these disciplines as part of his creative practice.

Feril's style transcends media as he explores a variety of approach to present his ideas. Recurring themes in his personal works include melancholy, reminiscence, combined with elements about home and origin. These themes are materialized with his use of analog and digital techniques. He often finds excitement from experimentation and working in territories unknown to him.

In a decade, he has produced a diverse portfolio with his intricate, luscious and vibrant artistic style working with brands across a variety of industries such as The Balvenie, The David Lynch Foundation, Ford Motor Company, Heineken, Hilton, Johnnie Walker, Jo Malone London, Singapore Airlines, Tiger Beer, Tory Burch and The Walt Disney Company.

Daryl Feril was discovered by a New York-based creative agency in 2012 which led him to his first huge break creating illustrations for LVMH worldwide luxury retailer, DFS Group for its Spring/Summer 2013 global campaign. He was among the 12 Filipino creatives who were featured in the Asian Creatives: Book of 150 Emerging Talents in Art, Design, Illustration & Photography in 2013 and has won 3 metals both Silver & Bronze at the adobo Design Awards in 2014 & 2015 respectively. He also participated in art residencies in Gwangju, South Korea and continues to do gallery exhibitions under Orange Project.

He is currently working full-time as a designer and visual artist at his home studio in Bacolod City, Island of Negros in the Philippines.
